June 30, 2020

Dear Client:

The Department of the Treasury and the IRS announced yesterday that the 2019 tax return filing and payment deadline of July 15, 2020 will not be postponed. Taxpayers unable to meet the July 15 due date can request an automatic extension of time to file until October 15, 2020.

Keep in mind, the extension to file is not an extension to pay your balance due for 2019. Any 2019 balance dues should be paid with your extension.

If you have not done so already, please provide us with your tax documentation as soon as possible so that we can complete your tax returns or prepare the extensions.

All our best.

Sincerely,

Woolston Consulting Group, LLC
